71 Million Pounds of Cuban Sugar Destroyed by Waterfront Blaze

VILLAGE PHOTOGRAPHER Bill Anderson stands amid equipment and huge, life-sized standup portrait of Gloria Neil in his studio following official announcement from Professional Photographers of California naming Miss Neil "Miss Photogenic of 1960." Anderson entered the former Miss Palm Springs winner—and three other Palm Springs girls—in the statewide competition. She will reign over the PPC convention on June 30-July 4 in San Francisco. GLORIA NEIL IS 'MISS PHOTOGENIC'

California's Professional Photographers have selected Gloria Neil, 1959's "Miss Palm Springs" titlist and second runner-up in the Miss California competiton last year, as "Miss Photogenic of 1960," it was formally announced here today.

Word of the selection was received here by Village commercial photographer Bill Anderson who entered Miss Neil — along with three other Palm Springs beauties — as his choice for the title.

MISS NEIL WILL leave — via Western Air Lines — for San Francisco on Thursday where she will reign over the four-day convention of the Professional Photographers of California.

In addition to the all-expenses trip to the Bay Area city, Miss Neil also receives a lengthy list of other prizes including her choice of a professional modeling course from either Caroline Leonetti in Hollywood or the House of Charm in San Francisco, a queen's wardrobe of sportswear, an evening dress and a bathing suit, an album of professional modeling pictures and a one year's supply of Caroline Leonetti makeup.

ANDERSON, WHO will appear with Miss Neil in several radio and television interviews in the San Francisco - Oakland area, will also receive approximately $1,000 in prizes, largely photographic equipment.

The recognition termed Miss Neil "the most photogenic girl in California" and said that she will hold that title until next June.

IKE REPORTS HIS TRIPS 'SUCCESS'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower says his personal diplomacy has been so successful that it drove the Communists to extreme measures to block his visit to Japan.

The President told the nation Monday night that Russia and Red China forced the Japanese government to cancel the Tokyo trip because they realized his worldwide missions have helped to obstruct Communist imperialism.

HIS RADIO - TELEVISION report on his 23,000 mile Far East tour drew mixed reaction from congressional leaders.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said he hoped and prayed Eisenhower was correct in believing that the Asian tour had produced beneficial effects for the free world.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) called the speech "an adequate answer" to Democratic critics of the President's trip.

EISENHOWER SAID the Communists suffered a sharp setback, even though they blocked his Japanese visit. He said ratification of the U.S. - Japan security treaty was a "signal defeat" for the Reds that far outweighed cancellation of his Tokyo stop.

The President said he had no plans for any more such trips before leaving office next January. But he said he would not hesitate to travel again if the need arose —and he urged his White House successor to follow his lead.

"So long as the threat of Communist domination may hang over the free world, believe that any future president will conclude that reciprocal visits by heads of friendly governments have great value in promoting free world solidarity," he said.

West Ends Disarmament Talks Today

Meeting Records To Be Sent to United Nations

GENEVA, (UPI) — The West today called a halt to the 10 - national disarmament conference in the face of a Communist walkout and ordered the conference record sent to the United Nations in New York.

The action marked the complete collapse of the talks which had begun with high hopes three months ago.

IT MEANT THAT the problem of international disarmament would go back to the United Nations where it will be debated by more than 80 nations in an open forum instead of a select group meeting in closed session.

The representatives of the United States, Britain, France, Italy and Canada gathered for a formal session this morning at the Palais des Nations despite the fact there was no hope of the Communists showing up.

FOR 10 MINUTES the five delegates, who since March have sought some means of reconciliation with the Soviets on the arms question, waited in silence. Then Britain's David Ormsby-Gore took the chair and called the meeting to order.

He described a meeting he had had with Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin Monday night when the latter made it plain the walkout was final.

Boy, 2, in Good Condition After Foot Amputation

Desert Hospital officials today reported that the condition of two-year-old Randall Spurgeon was "good" following amputation of his right foot in a homemade "dunes buggy" Sunday.

The child was brought to Desert Hospital Sunday following the mishap which occurred when a one-sixteenth inch length of steel cable, sitting on the front seat of the vehicle, became caught in the auto's differential and flew from the seat.

The youngster's foot had been in the middle of the coiled cable and the velocity of the coil's flight severed the child's foot.

POURING CONCRETE SLABS in the new addition to the Tramview Trailer Park, Park Manager "Parkey" Parkhurst looks at one of the installations while men, background, finish off the job. A total of 56 trailer spaces will be added to the park, making Tramview one of the largest in the Palm Springs area with a total of 250 trailer spaces. Other facilities are also being planned for construction this summer. (Desert Sun Photo)

Wives of U.S. Diplomats Stop Arrest in Cuba

HAVANA (UPI) — The wives of two U. S. diplomats thwarted attempts by agents of Premier Fidel Castro's military intelligence (Dier) organization to arrest them here Thursday, it was reported today.

After arguing for more than an hour and a half with a carload of Dier riflemen and tommygunners, Mrs. James R. Panks and Mrs. George Falk managed to reach safety at the embassy.

INTELLIGENCE, which had been trying to get the two women to Dier headquarters, apparently dropped the whole matter. So far as is known, no charge has been filed against the two women.

They were snapping pictures of picturesque buildings in Havana's Miramar district as souveniers for Mrs. Falk, who left Friday for Italy with her husband, a consular representative. Mrs. Panks' husband is an economics attache.

U. S. AMBASSADOR Philip W. Bonsal is believed to have protested the attempt to violate the American women's diplomatic immunity when he and Minister Counselor Daniel Braddock visited the Foreign Ministry Monday night.

The reported attempt to arrest Mrs. Panks and Mrs. Falk occurred a week to the day after the arrest of embassy attaches Edwin L. Sweet, of Abiline, Tex., and William G. Friedemann, of Stillwater, Okla.

CWTC GIVEN SITE -- BUT WITH CATCH

The city administration was instructed Monday during the City Council's weekly pre - meeting luncheon at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel to discuss with the California Water and Telephone Company a proposal by Councilman Earle Strebe that the phone company use the site of the old police station on North Palm Canyon Drive for off-street parking facilities and construct an access road to Belardo Road.

However, several members expressed doubt that the firm would agree to the road installation, even with the city's offer to return a major portion of the utility's $50,000 bond posted for a 20 unit deficiency in current parking space.

THE DEFICIENCY occurred when the company enlarged its facilities adjacent to the old police station. The phone company bid $116,600 for the old police station, but the council rejected the bid. Now, the council is offering to accept the bid subject to the other portions of the proposal listed.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker reported he is continuing negotiations for land adjacent to the old Greyhound station for a parking lot, owned by Mrs. Elsie Turk, San Diego, owner of the Sunset Court here.

THE COUNCIL HAD authorized the city attorney to proceed with condemnation proceedings for the land, if negotiations appeared futile. But Bunker reported the city appraisal of $75,000 and asked price of $100,000 may result in a compromise figure — and estimated a jury or judge — bound by law within the high and low limits — would establish such a figure if court action were undertaken.

He pointed out that court action would probably delay possession by another year.

THE COUNCIL was informed inquiry has also been made concerning property at the southeast corner of Arenas Road and South Palm Canyon Drive, which is a possible off-street parking site.

Owner Milton Kallner, Chicago, reportedly asks $175,000 for the property, and preliminary inquiries indicate the property would be appraised at approximately that figure, City Manager Dan Wagner reported.

THE COUNCIL instructed the administration to study insulation for the exterior walls of the children's story room of the Palm Springs branch library at 131 Morongo Road, and refrigeration of the room with a two horsepower electrical refrigeration unit.

The unit would cost approximately $430, plus wiring for 230 volt system. Evaporative coolers will be used for the remainder of the year in the other rooms of the building.

Tramview Park Nears Finish Of Expansion

Tramview Trailer Park has embarked on a huge expansion program which will create 56 more trailer spaces at the location and rocket the park into a position of prominence among the largest of Desert area trailer parks.

The additions will give Tramview a total of 250 trailer spaces.

PARK MANAGER O. L. "Parkey" Parkhurst, who has supervised the expansion at the park, said that the addition of the spaces was only a single phase of an overall expansion and modernization program at Tramview.

Besides the added space, Tramview will greet the fall season with:

— A large swimming pool, already completed.

— A huge recreation and social center, located in the central hub of the park.

— A large ballroom - square dance center (converted from the former recreation center) which will also see duty for parties and pot-lucks.

Coal Mine Blast Traps 50 Men

ABERTILLERY, Wales (UPI) — An explosion ripped through a coal mine here today, trapping dozens of miners below ground. A heavy death toll was feared.

The National Coal Board said nine bodies have been recovered.

Tornadoes Kill Two Persons in Plains States

By United Press International

Tornadoes skipped across parts of Nebraska and Colorado Monday night, killing two persons and inflicting extensive damage.

Alan B. Crowe, 54, Topeka, Kan., and Marvin W. Cox, 52, a Holyoke, Colo., farmer, were killed when a twister swooped down on a rural area northeast of Holyoke and trapped them in their cars.

Freighter Fire Goes to Warehouse

Boston Arson Squad Conducts 'Investigation'

BOSTON (UPI) — A spectacular million dollar waterfront fire that blazed through the night after spreading from a freighter to a warehouse was brought under control today.

The fire destroyed approximately 71 million pounds of Cuban - grown sugar in the Revere sugar refinery warehouse and aboard the 3,736 - ton Honduras freighter Choloma.

NO INURIES were reported as a result of the four - alarm blaze that broke out shortly before midnight although scores of firemen and crews of six fireboats were threatened with the poisonous fumes given off by the burning sugar.

The blaze leaped from the moored freighter to a pier and to the three-story brick warehouse on the Mystic River that empties into Boston Harbor.

THE ARSON SQUAD routinely investigates large fires of undetermined origin. Neither sabotage nor arson, however, was suspected immediately.

About 200 firemen and four fireboats fought the fire for nearly four hours before it was controlled early today.

The Revere Sugar Refinery, which employs between 750 and 1,000 persons, is a subsidiary of United Fruit Co. which has extensive sugar holdings in Cuba.

A refinery vice president, who asked that his name be withheld, described the loss as "enormous." He said that water damaged much of the sugar that was not burned.

DESERT FLORA MAY BE FADING, BUT FAUNA JUMPING

Desert flora may be fading somewhat in the rush of summer heat but the fauna is really jumping, dad!

Law enforcement ledgers read like a wildlife lore notebook throughout the area today with these items numbered as the most thought-provoking:

Mrs. Ruth Cassidy, of 171 - 586 Sahara Drive in Rancho Mirage invited sheriff's officers to her home to evict a Desert sidewinder had invaded that traditional castle of womanhood, the kitchen.

At 7:50 a.m., Mrs. Greta Linn Ecke, of 62-219 Sky Blue Water Trail in Outpost Estates, called sheriff's officers to her house to remove a boisterous owl that was hot-footing it from tree to tree in her backyard.

And at 8:40 p.m., last night, Henry Pietarila called Village police to report a mountain lion strolling near his house at 237 Crest View Drive.

Desert Press Club Elects New Officers, Plans for Coming Year

The Desert Press Club reviewed its 1959-60 activities, elected a new board of directors and established aims for the 1960-61 year in its annual election meeting held last night at the Biltmore Hotel here.

A total of approximately 65 persons — including members and guests — were on hand for the event.

GEORGE RINGWALD, reporter for the Riverside Enterprise, was elected president of the club for the 1960-61 year. Cliff Brown, Chamber of Commerce publicity director, was voted vice president; Phil Stone, KCMJ news director, was named secretary - treasurer and Jerry Brittingham, Palm Springs Life editor, and George Laine, Desert Sun news editor, were voted to the Press Club board.

Ringwald's acceptance speech vowed the determination to acquire permanent quarters for the Press Club here during the forthcoming year and the desire to continue "the outstanding contributions that the Press Club has made to Palm Springs since its earliest beginnings."

EARLIER, ACTING on behalf of retiring Press Club President Norm Lofthus, Coiff Brown summarized the activities of the 1959-60 year.

The club, Brown said, accomplished the creation of the organization's first scholarship to an outstanding Palm Springs High School student with the grant to Kurt Bloesser. The youth was selected from the total of journalism students at PSHS by a committee composed of Desert Sun Managing Editor Don Klotzbuecher and Desert Sun Society Editor Hildy Crawford.

Brown also cited the coordinated campaign for safety which was accomplished by the Press Club and the Palm Springs Safety Council under the direction of Phil Stone and Council President Don Miller.

BROWN SINGLED out the two Press Club fetes for the visiting Washington press corps during President Eisenhower's sojourn in the Desert area.

"Perhaps never before," he said, "has a press group in a city of our size had the opportunity to make such an impression of other newspapermen as did our club during that visit.

"They took away with them — and it was a unanimous opinion— the Desert's best wishes and great concern for their comfort. Many of them will be back."

IN ADDITION, Brown pointed out the great publicity value of the Walt Disney snowman which carried the Palm Springs name throughout the Winter Olympiad at Squaw Valley.

"Because the Desert Press Club was one of the first organizations to declare itself for one of the statues, our city was singled out for picture publicity which was distributed not only throughout the nation but throughout the world," he said.

Also accomplished during the past year, he said, was the establishment of reciprocal agreements with three more press clubs and the revision and printing of constitution and by-laws for the club. Copies of the new booklet were distributed to Press Club members following the meeting.

Given Chance

3 Men Battle Sea To Save Tanker

CHARLESTON, S. C. (UPI) — The captain and two crewmen of a stricken oil tanker, abandoned by the rest of the crew, rode the ship today in a battle against the sea.

Forty of the crew of the George MacDonald were taken off by another tanker and a Coast Guard cutter but the captain and two members of the crew stayed aboard the MacDonald, disabled when a rupture in the engine cooling system flooded the engine room.

The Coast Guard reported that the ship had stopped settling in mild seas and there appeared to be a good chance the captain and his two plucky crewmen would make it.

The 1,000-ton tanker, owned by the Sinclair Oil Co., was wallowing helplessly about 140 miles southeast of Charleston. Standing by were the Robinson, a Navy destroyer loaded with reservists getting an unexpected thrill during their active duty tours; the commercial tug Savannah from Savannah, Ga., and another Sinclair tanker, the J. E. Dyer.

"NEW MARKET GOES HERE" says Frank Hart, grocery supervisor for Market Basket as he discusses his store's plans for Palm Springs Shopping Center with (l. to r.) Ray Ryan, co-owner of the shopping center; Daniel J. Wagner, Palm Springs city manager; Mayor Frank M. Bogert; and A. R. Simon, vice-president of Seeterra, Inc., the other co-owner of the development. The group met yesterday at the new store's building site, checked building progress and architectural features. Hart explained that the same architectural firm—Mayer and Kanner—who designed Palm Springs Lanes also conceived the new Market Basket store and that similar features, including the unusual and attractive rock facing employed in the bowling center structure shown here, would be used in his company's building. Dear Abby... ...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am a boy of 12 and I am having trouble with my brother, who is 10. He wore my Boy Scout uniform and took my bugle outside and blew it all day.

When I caught him I gave him a little tap on the head. He was standing on the porch by the mailbox and his head accidentally hit the mailbox and a little tiny cut was made and maybe two drops of blood came out. He ran in the house screaming and my mother went into hysterics.

I am now being punished by having to stay in the house all day Saturday and Sunday. My brother didn't get punished at all for wearing my uniform and blowing my bugle. Do you think this was fair? PUNISHED

DEAR PUNISHED: Your brother had punishment coming, too. But your mother probably felt that matter was taken care of when you "tapped" him (some tap!) on the head. Next time, leave the punishing to your mother.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "UNDER AGE AND DESPERATE:" I can't help you unless you send me your name and address. I offer advice and refer people to the proper agencies; I do not "turn them in."

"What's your problem? Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

CONGRESS EXTENDS ENTRYMEN LIMITS

WASHINGTON — Congressman D. S. Saund announced that with passage by the Senate, his bill for the extension of desert land entries on Palo Verde Mesa has cleared Congress and is awaiting signature by the President.

The bill would grant the entrymen three additional years in which to arrange financing for irrigation facilities on their land. Another extension of up to three years would be granted if financing has been arranged.

SAUND TERMED THE passage of the bill by Congress "a triumph that demonstrates the effective results of cooperation between a citizens' group and their representatives in Congress."

He said he and California Senators Thomas H. Kuchel and Clair Engle received scores of appeals from entrymen on the Palo Verde Mesa and residents of Palo Verde Valley. As a result, he and the Senators introduced identical bills in the House and Senate.

THE SENATORS DID extensive work on the bill in conjunction with the Department of Interior and Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. In April, however, when Senate action was slowed down by the civil rights action, the Senators suggested that Saund arrange hearings on his bill before the House Interior and Insular Affairs committee.

Saund introduced a revised bill that incorporated the changes made by the Senators and persuaded the committee chairman to schedule a hearing on April 21. This bill was passed by the House of Representatives on May 16. The Senate approval has followed.

'AMATEURS NIGHT' FOR SQUARE DANCE

Tonight will be "Amateurs Night" for square dance calling during the square dance meet at the Polo Grounds Playhouse, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Last month, members Ken and Peg Yearwood, Frances Guerra, Bill Patterson, and Ed Greer called in the amateurs event.

Wednesday evening, the Circle-O-Squares club will visit the "Sidewinders' Club" in Indio. Osa Mathews, caller for the Circle-Os, will be special guest caller for the evening. Last Thursday, Bob Ferraud, caller from Indio, was guest caller here for the Circle-O club.

The Circle-O Squares announced that 96 children have enrolled in the childrens' square dance class conducted by Osa Mathews, under the sponsorship of the city recreation and special events department. Circle-O members have attended the classes.

The childrens' classes are held Tuesday evenings in the Playhouse. Registration has been closed for the program.

BIGHAMTON, N.Y. (UPI) — The President of the New York State Medical Society says doctors should pay more attention to public relations.

Dr. Harry I. Ineberg told a medical meeting that if doctors are to "re-establish our traditional prestige and high standing in the community, we must . . . be available when needed. . .be willing to talk to ou patients in language they will understand . . . and charge equitable and fair fees."

HOMING PIGEON, FOXES ARE AMONG WEEKEND VISITORS

A combination of winds and heat apparently overcame a homing pigeon who was reported wandering around the grounds of the Palm Springs Hotel Saturday.

Palm Springs police picked up the visiting bird, and gave it time to get its bearings. They offered it an open-skies policy after a brief rest — and the pigeon flapped off toward the north.

Other reported wild-life visitors included white foxes, who were believed to have been dashing around Camino Mirasol at approximately 9:30 p.m., Sunday. A resident of the area called police to report the animals. An investigating officer was unable to locate any white animals prowling the area.

'STAY ALL YEAR' SLOGAN PAYS OFF AT TRAMVIEW PARK

The slogan adopted at the end of the winter season — "Stay All Year at Tramview" — has more than justified itself.

A recent Saturday night dance with coffee and also the Father's Day Potluck, were enjoyed by 50 residents.

Summer residents enjoy nightly poolside music and activities.

'Madison' Becomes New Dance Craze

By WILLIAM D. LAFFLER

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Latest dance craze sweeping the country is the Madison, which can be stepped by dancers of all ages.

It has a particular appeal to teenagers, who are less stuffy than their elders, because of its simplicity and adaptability.

THE MADISON HAS its roots in a popular song, "The Hucklebuck," an- was popularized by pianist Ray Bryant. It also has been the vehicle of overnight success of the Band of Dicky Doo and The Don't, an aggressive group of teenagers.

"Madison and Other Dances" by Dicky Doo (United Artists UAL 3094) and "Madison Time" by the Ray Bryant Combo (Columbia CL-1476) are leading LP's featuring this refreshing ballroom music. Each LP has calls to guide the dancers into various steps and always back to the Big M.

GETTING AWAY from the Madison, some fine sound can be heard on "Big Band Man" by Ralph Marterie and the All-Star Men (Mercury MG-20526).

Marterie leads outstanding sidemen such as Bud Shank, Bob Cooper, Red Mitchell and Buddy De Franco in 13 numbers by Jimmy McHugh, including "Exactly Like You" and "On the Sunny Side of the Street."

OTHER GOOD Dance LP's — "Brazilian Choo - Choo" by Horacio Diaz and Orchestra (Kapp KS-3181). "The Sweetest Waltzes This Side of Heaven" by Guy Lombardo (Capitol T - 1306, and "Billy Vaughn Plays Stephen Foster" (Dot DLP-3260).

Selected singles — "It's a Beautiful Day for a Ball Game" by the Harry Simeone Songsters (20th Fox 197), "Hi-Ho" by Mary Martin (Disneyland HB - 115), "Cut Across Shorty" by Eddie Cochran (Liberty F-55242), "The Shine on the Top of the Hill" by The Crew Cuts (RCA - Victor Hugo & Luigi 47-7734).

LAST CHANCE TO hear and watch the musical versatility of longtime Village favorite Pepe Callahan will be offered local clubgoers for the next seven days. Pepe ends his current, sensational stand in the Biltmore Hotel's Garden Room Tuesday and is scheduled to head directly for Las Vegas and new bookings there. (Sun Photo).

CUTE POSE BY CUTE GALS serves notice that "Damn Yankees," the forthcoming Palm Springs PlayerStage musical, is due for premiere performance on June 30. Dodie Ehrlich, Diane Dumas, Nancy Gardner and Judy Jorgenson give out with song hailing the fun show, which will be presented in the Riviera Hotel's Convention Hall. (Bill Milner Photo).

AFTER SUN-SET

Continuous Shows Slated for Biltmore

By GEORGE LAINE

If you haven't heard the "new" Pepe Callahan in his current stand at the Biltmore Hotel's Garden Room, better not waste any more time.

Pepe, who was last summer's president of the Palm Springs Summer Tequila Drinking Society, Chi Chi Chapter, and with whom your correspondent spent many a lonely evening in the Starlite Room confines, has just seven days left in his current stand at the Biltmore.

AFTER THAT, IF you want to listen to the Callahan tones, you'll have to travel to 'Vegas or Tahoe or Santa Barbara — or to Tijuana, later on — where he is scheduled to appear.

Pepe, of course, plans to return again — possibly this fall but more probably next spring — so there is no necessity for mass leaps from Tahquitz Falls. Still, the able young singer is bound to be sorely missed.

(It has been reported on usually reliable authority that the unusually large coterie of Callahan devotees intend to clock themselves in black for the balance of the summer. It is to be hoped that the mourning togs will be black shorts for the male mourners, black bikinis for the femme fanatics.)

THIS SOMEWHAT dire news for the advocates of el ritmo caliente may be tempered somewhat with the following item direct from the desk of Garden Room impresario Richard Levin.

"Effective Wednesday, July 6, the voice of Jeri Sullivan and the piano of Jack Pfeiffer will appear nightly in the Garden Room of the Biltmore Hotel," the communique declared. "They will be augmented in alternating sets by the music of the Ernie Rocha Trio."

Now that is what I'd call a staid news release, but Richard obviously meant it only for information purposes.

WHAT IT PORTENDS — for the Biltmore — is a direct refuttal of the age old Village maxim that "nothing happens in Palm Springs in the summer." The Biltmore is apparently unwilling to go along with that view and — putting action to the philosophy — is doing something that will directly affect such thinking here.

Continuous entertainment is a must in most of the major clubs here during the fall, winter and spring.

Now, the Biltmore's action indicates, that "must" category will be elongated to include summer scheduling as well.

IT'S GOING TO make for some great competition among the remainder of the Village clubs. No other club — not with a manager in his right mind — is going to sit still while one club creates an atmosphere that makes the public feel they're getting a better deal than at any other.

And when the rest of the entertainment rooms in this town go out to meet or beat the summer fare that the Biltmore offers, you can gamble on one thing for sure.

The club-going public is going to be treated to one great series of entertainment bills throughout the normally dull summer. That's great news, as far as I'm concerned.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: If you make it to L.A., don't miss:

The new and very great 1960 vintage Duke Ellington band, now at the Crescendo. Never better, never more tightly organized, never better voiced. It's a great, great privilege to hear them . .

THOUSANDS ATTEND NAVY RELIEF SHOW

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Thousands of Marines and residents of the Hi-Desert were on hand for the annual Navy Relief Carnival staged at Marine Corps Base here for the benefit of the 1960 Navy Relief Fund Raising Campaign.

Fun seekers began arriving before the scheduled opening at 6 p.m., Thursday, and many remained until closing at 11 p.m.

An old fashioned carnival atmosphere prevailed over the scene as the young and old alike tried their hand at the many and varied fun and skill booths lining the midway.

Highlighting the first night's events was the awarding of 13 Navy Relief prizes to lucky participants. Additional prizes were awarded in the next two evenings and the top prize — a 1960 Ford Falcon — was presented Saturday night.

The Marine Corps Base Band, under the direction of Master Sergeant B. E. Farr, added to the carnival atmosphere with the presentation of several informal concerts throughout the evening, "Disneyland Style."

Summer Enjoyment

Americans are music lovers and millions of them will be entertained under the stars this summer by symphony orchestras and light opera presentations in almost every section of the nation. Two which will attract the largest crowds are the "Symphony Under the Stars" at Hollywood bowl and the light opera productions of the St. Louis Municipal Opera. Residents of the Missouri metropolis love their "Muny" which is the daddy of them all—having started in 1919. The eleven productions this summer will cost about $30,000 each.

Summer residents of Palm Springs will have the opportunity of enjoying some excellent musical programs at nearby Redlands Bowl which is almost as old as the "Muny." Their 37th annual summer music festival opens next Tuesday night, July 5, with Harry Farbman conducting the Redlands Bowl Symphony Orchestra, Dorothy Warenskjold as soprano soloist.

In addition to the symphony concerts, the association will present "La Boheme," "The Marriage of Figaro," "The Mikado," and "The Nutcracker." (Ballet Celeste). Other programs will include the Los Angeles City Ballet and Luisa Spanish Dancers. The complete program for the summer may be obtained by writing to P.O. Box 466, Redlands, and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped, legal size envelope.

Redlands Bowl programs have always been a popular summer attraction in Southern California and much credit for the success is due Mrs. George Emmett Mullen, founder-president.

The feeling one can get from inspiring music was pretty well explained by 12 - year - old Doug McDowell of Syracuse, N.Y. In an article for Parade he was asked to tell what he knows about various subjects, and had this to say about music:

"I like to listen to only some symphonies. The big orchestras. They want you to feel it in your heart instead of your ears. You make up the words inside you. I remember one we had, 'The Ozark Suite.' They had one part of people waking up early in the morning and you could see it and feel it."

For those who are interested in music appreciation there are the programs dealing with folk music, music appreciation and education at the Idyllwild School of Music and Arts, which also open next week.

Dig Those Crazy Profs!

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Students have been rioting all over the world these days — Turkey, Japan and Cuba. Now in this country, figuratively speaking, they are up in arms against the oath-taking provisions of the National Defense Education Act of 1958. What's the reason? Spring fever, parental neglect, nuclear unrest — or is it their teachers?

This daring afterthought leaped to mind in reviewing the Senate debate on the ripper amendment which is now before the House. There was this nugget of wisdom from Senator Richard Russell of Georgia, who was arguing to leave the act alone:

"I REGRET THAT some 20 institutions — universities and colleges — have already announced their refusal to cooperate in the student loan program. I think, Mr. President, these institutions are wronging the young people of this country."

Later in the debate, but dependent on Russell's remark, Senator Dodd of Connecticut, went further in indicting the faculty groups which have been inciting students to intellectual rioting (different in violence but not in kind from the snake-dancers of Tokyo) against the Defense policy of this country. Dodd said in a prepared address:

". . . THESE COLLEGE and educational spokesmen . . . chose to repudiate a Government program . . . to stir up the students against the act which is aimed to benefit them . . . chose to liken our Government to the Nazi regime of Hitler, to shed crocodile tears and to put on an air of persecution."

Like the Japanese snake-dancers, the demonstrators against oath-taking are a pestiferous minority. The figures show that only 26 out of 1,350 institutions have declined to participate in the student loan program which is controlled by the objectionable oaths. Numbers are not very meaningful, since nose-counting never tells much about the rights and wrongs of anything.

IN A CIVILIZED country the minorities are allowed to have their fling within limits. The thing which sent me digging back into the Congressional Record to review the Senate debate was an episode that happened several days later.

During the testimony of Dr. Linus Pauling, the nuclear pacifist, a spattering of frantic applause burst from a knot of college-age boys and girls when the witness seemed to be getting hostile toward the committee.

I WENT BACK and interviewed them (not asking for any names) and discovered this unhappy but prevalent situation. As between a hostile, lay-down-your-arms witness and the four U. S. Senators who were questioning him with the utmost courtesy, the Youth Movement was for the witness—and against the American Government.

How did their twigs get bent that way? I think Senators Russell and Dodd suggested the answer. To understand how the faculty groups have been leading their students wrong, let us summarize the oath-taking issue. The student loans were authorized by the 85th Congress on the Sputnik-scare argument that a National Defense Education Act should be passed to send more people to college.

SINCE THIS was a quasi-military measure, it was thought that the students ought to take subsantially the same oaths that are required of ROTC students and scholarship beneficiaries under the National Science Foundation. These oaths asked of student loan-takers are two in number. One simply and beautifully pledges allegiance to the Constitution. The other declares that the taker is not a Communist and does not plan to help overthrow the USA.

The anti-oaths agitators at first poposed both these oaths. When they couldn't rub out the pledge of allegiance, they concentrated on the anti-Communist statement. In the final Senate action, the anti-Communist declaration was killed, but a much stronger and legally-binding substitute by Senator Prouty of Vermont was passed. Thus, despite much public misunderstanding, the anti-oath professors and their Senate cohorts took a beating.

LEFT IN THE embattled air was the plaintive cry that American students were being "singled out" for the anti-Communist statement.

Well, why not? To be in the van of battle used to be considered an honor. Their teachers ought to teach these students that it's a privilege to be first in any fight against Communism.

—Holmes Alexander.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

In just a week it's July Five, Drive so you'll be here, still alive.

Time again to bore you with that repeated jive:

If you take to the highways this coming weekend, just figure every driver you meet is either drunk or crazy and act accordingly.

THIRD OF FOUR long weekends in 1960, starts in three days. They'll be taking off next Friday evening for the Fourth of July holidays.

Those who can't get away Friday night will be on the road Saturday, off to the mountains, beaches or desert.

Or, perhaps, just into the country to let the kids raise hob with grandma's house.

SOME OF THEM won't be coming back. That's the tragic story of every long weekend.

Millions of words are written each holiday warning people to be extra careful.

The situation is improving but not enough.

There are still too many who think Independence Day means the day to be independent.

THERE WAS ANOTHER tragedy in town last week.

Palm Springs High School's "Chia," the annual Senior publication which records the year's activities, the story of organizations, athletics and school life in general, did not arrive in time for graduation.

It's here now, and one of the best of a long line of successful year books.

But there is a sentimental void.

YOU SEE, while the book is an excellent record of the year and in later years recalls memories of happy school days, it doesn't have all of the scribbled messages and signatures of school pals.

Ten years from now when a member of the Class of 1960 picks up a Chia, the story of which team won or lost or who was selected what, won't mean too much.

BUT THE NAMES written across the pages and the notes accompanying them, will bring back a flock of pleasant recollections.

The most fun of a school annual, a senior told me and she is right, is going around the last day of school, having your friends autograph the book and you doing the same for them.

THAT WAS a few days ago and her idea already may have been put into effect.

But she thought that when school starts next year, the authorities should set aside a day when all of the grads of this year could congregate on the campus and fill their "Chias" with the messages and signatures of their school day pals.

Perhaps they could do it now before the class is too widely scattered.

Somewhere around the house is my old high school annual with the names of a lot of present-day grandmothers and grandfathers inscribed in it. Full of happy memories.

STAN DELAPLANE:

'Where the Heart Is...'

Speaking of houses. The most interesting thing we did when building our home was to put in a brick stairway.

We are in the good old summertime midst of adding a new room to the dwelling. The yard is full of lumber. And the children are stepping on the nails. It is the most delightful season of the year.

"Absolutely NO brick stairway!"

THAT WAS THE only thing I put my foot down on when we built.

In my gay and gory journalist days, I was often assigned to the emergency hospital. If you look down the blotter of the day's emergencies, you will find a startling repetition:

"Falling down stairs. Contusions, possible skull fracture."

WE BUILT A house of comparably soft wood. Wooden walls, wooden roof — (the kind that catches on fire easily when the chimney blows sparks.) We built a wooden garage.

What did we build for stairs? Brick.

Not only that. When you tumble down these badly-lit, hard, brick stairs, you land on a solid brick floor.

If I were building a booby-trap, I would design such a house.

I WORKED OUT the statistics: "Of five people admitted to emergency hospital, four will have injuries resulting from household falls."

I pointed out that frame houses stand safely during earthquakes.

"Most persons injured in the San Francisco earthquake of '06 were hit by bricks from toppling chimneys."

I GOT OUT THE blueprints. I showed how the stairway bricks hung like the sword of Damocles, right above the dining table.

I painted a purple word picture. The festive family is gathered around the festive board.

The neighbors come in. They Rumble! Rumble! Crash! pick you up with the thing we use to turn pancakes with.

EVERYBODY listened. They said: "Gee, Daddy knows a LOT, doesn't he?"

Then we went ahead and built a brick staircase.

It has kept us on our toes — for want of a better word.

ONE HILARIOUS thing about this stairway — we will probably die laughing about it. One funny thing about it is the telephone.

We have a long cord on the telephone. And the cord stretches right across the stairs. It is as effective as a trip wire in a mine field. It is well camouflaged — blends right in with the brick.

CATCH THIS CORD just right with your foot and you come down like a stage comic. It is really comical and we all enjoy it. (Our insurance rates are a little high. But we all agree it is worth it.)

The stairs turned out to be useful in a way I did not anticipate at all. And it shows, "If you haven't tried it, don't knock it."

The stairs are open with a decorative, wrought-iron hand rail.

WELL, YOU CAN reach up and put all kinds of things on the steps. Things you will take upstairs later. When you are on your way up. Things like skates and hair spray cans.

"Just put it on the stairs," we say. "I'll take it up later."

You are sort of reminded to take things up this way. Because the things are right in your way.

IT IS EXCELLENT on your way up. You can see the things sitting right there. On your way downstairs, you do NOT see them. The overhang of the stairs sorts of hides them.

But you notice them when you step on them.

We stepped on a can of hair spray just this morning and came down like a plane with no wings. It made a fearful clatter. Livened up the breakfast table no end — that's one way of putting it.

GRIN AND BEAR IT — By LICHTY

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Royalty Hunted

HOLLYWOOD — Ralph Edwards sails for Europe this Thursday (June 30) to find a sufficiently famous (and willing) crowned head to kick off his new-season This Is Your Life series on Sept. 25.

Roger Smith is about to spin out of his spot as "Spencer" in 77 Sunset Strip for Gold of the Seven Saints, a Warner Bros. movie in which he'll co-star with his Warner-TV stablemate, Clint (Cheyenne) Walker. A lovely newcomer from Rome, Leticia Roman (real name, Leticia Novarese), gets the femme lead.

Lidflipped in a studio's front office, "The boss asked me if I'm a yes-man, I said NO — and then he fired me!"

BOOK PUBLISHERS have a record number of books by and about show-business figures coming out this fall, including three kiddie tomes bearing Danny Kaye's by-line (all stemming from his great one-shot TV show about the children of the world) and five with Shirley Temple listed as author.

Art Linkletter, Maurice Chevalier, Harpo Marx, Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy, Mary Margaret McBride, Don McNeill and Roy Rogers are also on the long list. But my favorite title of all is tacked on to Kyle Crichton's collection of theatrical interviews: Total Recoil.

ADD CONGRESSMAN Adam Clayton Powell's autobiography to the above list and go ahead, how do I squeeze him in with the show-biz bunch? Here's how: he has promised his publisher (Putnam's) that he won't pull any punches in telling the story of his private life with his estranged spouse, Hazel Scott.

Peter Brown wangled an okay from his Warner-TV bosses to spend his summer away from the Lawman series playing dates at various State Fairs cross-country. The studio brass said fine but Pete has to lay it on the line: inasmuch as the Warners made him a star on TV, he will have to kick back 50 per cent of his "live" loot to the studio. You don't think it's fair? Well, Pete COULD spend his vacation taking a vacation instead of working.

GEORGE SANDERS signed to co-star in a movie in England, The Rebel (no kin to Nick Adam's TV series, The Rebel), with a big star named Tony Hancock. You never heard of him? He's Britain's No. One TV comedian.

Another "unknown," Lloyd Bochner, just signed with Fox-TV as Rod Taylor's TV teammate in Hong Kong, a new Kaiser - sponsored series. For an unknown, Bochner did very much okay for himself last year —he coined $92,000 as Canada's busiest TV star.

TENNESSEE WILLIAMS took his mother back to New York following her first visit to Hollywood. The playwright, while here, arranged for her to meet the sole star she wanted to meet: Mary Pickford. The sweet little old lady spent her entire session with Mary telling the one-time Queen of Hollywood, now 67 but a VERY chic 67, of her long-time admiration for the star and her long, golden curls.

Miss Pickford's reaction, a friend reports, would make a great second-act curtain scene for one of Tennessee's plays about old-time movie stars who hate being called old - timers. And I can't say I blame 'em.

GLENN FORD IS the feller they're flagging for Journey Into Shame. This will be the film version of David English's experiences in the South after he took pills that changed the color of his skin and made him resemble a Negro.

Jimmy Boyd refused to return to Fox for some dubbing sequences on High Time. The young singer, apparently unhappy because most of the film's footage is devoted to co - stars Bing Crosby, Fabian, Tuesday Weld, Nicole Maurey and Richard Beymer, has also asked the studio to remove his name from the cast credits and ads.

ANOTHER BOYD — Stephen —won't remain abroad after he finishes The Big Gamble in Dublin to shoot Cleopatra with Liz Taylor in Italy. The Ben - Hur villain's explanation: "I'm tired of costume pictures. Besides, how can a guy improve his golf game in a toga???"

Transistor radios are suddenly this summer deadly poison to Hollywood hostesses. There was a time when guests would excuse themselves from the gilded salons of Beverly Hills to "watch my favorite TV show in your den, d'ya mind, dear, I just CAN'T miss it!" That's de trop nowadays.

THE NEW THREAT is the transistor, as exemplified by producer Mervyn LeRoy who brought his to the party thrown in honor of Cantinflas by George Sidney and Lillian Burns, husband-and-wife producing team for Pepe. Mervyn had most of the males attending the melee in his corner of Romanoff's Crown Room, scene of the party, listening to the ball game, instead of joining in the jollity.

Add Tinseltown tragedy, same party: My tablemates were Sue and Alan Ladd, Mary Lou and Delmer Daves, Georgiana and Ricardo Montalban and Maggie McCarter. All were place-carded, present and accounted for.

One couple — Ursula and Bob Taylor — was missing. Our hostess was horrified, until she learned the Taylors had thought the party was over after the pre-dinner cocktail party and had gone to another restaurant for dinner, completely unaware of the big "sitdown dinner" for 300 lovingly planned a month in advance by Mrs. Sidney . . . Next day Taylor wailed: "Why didn't somebody tell us? Oh well, we had a fine meal at Chasen's and how was yours at Romanoff's?" I told him fine.

QUOTES

HAVANA — Premier Fidel Castro, hinting his government may confiscate all remaining American-owned business interests in Cuba:

"They are here now, but it may be that they will not be here."

LOS ANGELES — Actress Betty Davis, bursting into tears upon being awarded $65,700 in damages for injuries she suffered in a fall: "These are just tears of joy."

Palm Springs has been asked to join in supplying volunteers for a 1,000-man county unit of a coast-wide civilian air raid warning system. Robert Peterson is head of the local disaster council.

Palm Springs is now the third city in size in Riverside County, having experienced a 16 per cent gain in population in the past decade. Population now is 7,428, compared to 3,434 in 1940.

Forest closing laws will be in effect tomorrow, and appropriate signs will be posted.

JUNE 28, 1940

The annual Summer Resort and Travel edition of the Cincinnati Enquirier published a very complimentary article about Palm Springs, under the heading, "Desert Goes Modern." The edition was mailed to 200,000 homes.

Culver Nichols, president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce and prominent local subdivider, has been elected to the important post of chairman of the Riverside County Planning Commission, replacing Jack A. Ross, who declined to run for re-election.

An effort is being made through the cooperation of Banning and Palm Springs to interest two National League clubs to train at Palm Springs during the spring season. Tentative plans would secure the El Mirador Hotel as headquarters for the clubs. Preliminary contacts will be made with the teams by Harvey O'Day, well known Realtor of Beverly Hills and Banning. In case the present plans are successful, it will be necessary to create a perfect diamond at Palm Springs.

Kenneth Reich Initiated in Phi Beta Kappa

HANOVER, N. H. — A Dartmouth College senior from Hermosa Beach, California, was recently initiated into the Dartmouth chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the national scholastic honor society. This chapter is the fourth oldest in the nation and was founded in 1787.

He is Kenneth I. Reich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reich, of 126 8th St., in Hermosa Beach, formerly of Palm Springs. In order to be eligible for membership in the society, a student must maintain a 4.5 average on a 5.0 grading system during his four years at Dartmouth.

Reich, who just graduated last week, spent his junior year in France, and was a Daniel Webster National Scholar at the college, the highest honor that Dartmouth bestows upon a student.

Among his activities, Reich has been a member of the governing committee of his dormitory, of the Human Rights Society, the Cosmopolitan Club, and the staff of the Dartmouth, the student edited daily newspaper.

Next year he will do graduate work in international relations at any university in Canada or the United States as a recipient of a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, which he was granted earlier this spring by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation.

He is a graduate of Palm Springs High School.

Judy Stuart Married to Ronald Cole on June 18th

Judy, one of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stuart of 250 Via Del Sol, was married June 18 to Ronald Sinclair Cole, son of the Harry Coles of San Pedro. They said their vows in a double ring ceremony in the Little Chapel of the West in Las Vegas, with most of their family in attendance.

The blonde bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white tulle, with elbow-length veil held up by a pearl tiara and carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

She was attended by her twin sister Jeannie who wore a fuschia pink chiffon and carried pink carnations.

Best man was Albert Moe of Palm Springs.

A graduate of Palm Valley School, the bride is a student at Riverside City College, where she is studying nursing. The bridegroom attends the University of California at Riverside, where he is majoring in chemistry.

The Stuarts were there for the wedding with their son Ronald and daughter Myrna Stone, the Leo Bakers and the Coles and several of their friends. The whole group enjoyed a wedding supper at The Sands, the night before the wedding.

'Scoop' Leonard To Ride Again

Wherever news men convene — and there will be plenty of them at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions next month in Los Angeles and Chicago—yarn-swapping inevitably turns to scoops and news "beats."

But if you ask veteran CBS News correspondent Bill Leonard for a fabulous feat of reportage, he has a tendency to shift into reverse. He remembers instead the "beats" that blew up in his face during the 1952 conventions.

THE FIRST occurred during the Democratic convention in Chicago and concerns the now-famous hotel-room caucus in which the Illinois delegation voted to urge Adlai E. Stevenson to make himself available for the nomination.

Just before the caucus, the room was cleared of reporters — of all reporters, that is, but Bill Leonard. On the assumption that up-state delegates wouldn't necessarily know down-state delegates, he decided to take his chances and stay put. It worked.

AT THE DRAMATIC moment when it became clear that Stevenson was to be drafted, Leonard slipped out of the room and phoned his scoop to anchorman Walter Cronkite at the convention hall.

"Good story," was Cronkite's casual reaction. "It's coming over the wire right now."

The ousted mob of reporters, Leonard learned to his chagrin, had merely listened outside the door and heard everything that was going on inside the hotel room.

LEONARD'S OTHER journalistic tragedy occurred the same year during the closing hours of the Republican convention.

While walking down a Chicago street one afternoon, brooding over the fact that there was to be no advance text of Eisenhower's acceptance speech, Leonard chanced across an acquaintance, an executive of the TelePrompTer Corporation, who was headed for Room 2301 at theBlackstone Hotel, where Eisenhower was to arrive at 6 p. m. to familiarize himself with the use of a TelePrompTer.

AN INSPIRED Leonard rushed back to his own room in the same hotel, flung off his jacket and tie, rolled up his sleeves and, at 5:30 p. m., sauntered casually into Room 2301. His friend remained silent. A technician who recognized Leonard gave him a wink. The third person in the room, Arthur Vandenburg, Jr., was fussing over the speech and didn't notice the extra "workman." As General Eisenhower's speech rolled out on the machine during the practice pre-run, Leonard took copious notes.

At 6 p. m., as scheduled, the Republican nominee arrived. After giving Leonard an uncertain haven't - I - seen - you - somewhere - before look, Mr. Eisenhower proceeded to run through the speech.

AT 6:30, LEONARD was on the phone with his boss, Sig Mickelson (now President of CBS News), from whom he was stunned to hear: "The acceptance speech is moving on the wire right now."

It seems that newsmen had raised such a protest about their deadlines that the speech was released in advance at 6:30 p. m. with a "hold publication" until it was delivered.

ACTUALLY LEONARD'S news breaks far outnumber these two failures. Noteworthy was his coup at the 1956 Republican Convention in San Francisco. After the entire nation had taken seriously the nomination of "Joe Smith" for Vice President, it was Bill Leonard who cornered the man who made the nomination, delegate Terry Carpenter of Nebraska, and in an exclusive interview elicited the confession, "There is no Joe Smith."

As it turned out — and as Leonard informed the entire country on the CBS Television Network — Carpenter had made the "Joe Smith" nomination in an attempt to gain access to the speaker's platform to urge an open convention.

But Leonard doesn't talk about such accomplishments. What he remembers most vividly are the scoops that never were.

Mystic India On Wanderlust

Bill Burrud's "Wanderlust" joins in a celebration of a new republic's Independence Day in "Mystic India, Tuesday, June 28, 7:30 p. m., KCOP, Channel 13.

In Jaipur, in ancient Rajasthan, viewers will see colorful pageants, strange cults, exotic dances and see the impact of a new-found liberty.

Myron Zobel Goes to Spain

Myron Zobel travels to Spain to see the creations of its artisans and the priceless paintings of its artists in "Arts and Crafts of Spain" on "George Zobel," Tuesday, June 28, 6:30 p. m., Channel 13.

King, Gretchen Wyler Are Guests

Comedian Alan King and musical comedy dancer-singer Gretchen Wyler join regulars Carol Burnett and Durward Kirby on the last program of the current season of "The Garry Moore Show" Tuesday, June 28, CBS Television Network, 10-11 p.m. One of Allen Funt's "Candid Camera" vignettes is also featured on the show.

"That Wonderful Year" for this program is 1950 and the entire segment is devoted to a salute to Frank Loesser's smash hit musical, "Guys and Dolls," which opened on Broadway during that year.

FROM LOESSER'S popular score, Moore, his guests, his regulars and entire cast do such great songs as "Fuge for Tinhorns," "Adelaide's Lament," "Luck Be a Lady," "I've Never Been in Love Before," "My Time of Day," "A Bushel and a Peck," "If I Were a Bell," "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat," and "Guys and Dolls" as a finale.

Earlier in the program monologist King delivers one of his dissertations on life in suburbia and Miss Wyler is seen in a specially choreographed song - and - dance number.

THE PRODUCTION number for the season's end, as last year, finds the stage covered with rocking chairs as Moore and the entire company do "Sittin', Starin', and Rockin'."

"The Garry Moore Show" is produced by Joe Hamilton and directed by Julio di Benedetto. Executive producer is Bob Banner.

University Of Judaism Cites Turner

Institution Lauds Villager With Honorary Degree

LOS ANGELES — Recognition of Dr. Justin G. Turner of 925 Panorama Drive, Palm Springs, as one of Southern California's leading scholars and experts on American and Jewish history was paid in Los Angeles by the University of Judaism at its June commencement exercises when he was presented with an honorary degree as Doctor of Humane Letters.

The university, at 6525 Sunset Blvd., serves as West Coast branch of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and Turner was one of its founders in 1947 and for the past seven years has been chairman of the board of governors.

DR. SIMON GREENBERG, president of the unversity, conferred the degree and noted that Turner is also founder and first president of the Southern California Jewish Historical Society, and chairman of the local committee now making a study of Los Angeles Jewish history for the American Jewish History Center.

In addition, Turner is chairman of the Civil War Centennial Association of California, co-chairman of the B'nai B'rith Archives in Washington, D. C., and an officer and director of more than 20 historical societies, book clubs and museums.

HE HAS ALSO served as past president of the Friends of UCLA Library, of the Friends of the Jewish Community Library of the Los Angeles Jewish Federation-Council, and of the Civil War Round Table of Southern California.

He is also chairman of the Lincoln Sesquicentennial Association of California.

Former's Mount Kenya Safari Club of Kenya, British East Africa and latter's Schloss Mittersill Club of Salzburg, Austria have just signed a pact whereby the members of each club will be able to take advantage of the unique hunting facilities and social amenities offered by both clubs. Today is Tuesday, June 28, the 180th day of the year, with 186 to follow in 1960.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1491, Henry VIII, King of England, was born.

In 1864, Congress repealed the Fugitive Slave law of 1850.

In 1867, Italian playwright and Nobel Prize Winner Luigi Pirandello was born.

In 1894, Congress declared the first Monday in September, Labor Day, a federal holiday.

In 1914, a young Serbian fanatic assassinated the heir to the throne of Austria - Hungary — the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, and his wife—thus igniting the First World War.

Thought for today: French poet Jacques Delille said: "Fate makes our relatives, choice makes our friends."

Hands Aren't Obsolete

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — A University of Vermont Extension Service dairyman says though "milking machines have long since taken over, the farmer's hands are still vital in milking."

Warren Dodge said, "Starting and stripping cows by hand can be important steps in a good milking program and war against mastitis."

Safety Pin-Up

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — A housewife who lives near a dusty gravelled road pinned this sign on a tree beside her clothesline: "Drive slowly — diapers drying."

FOREST CLOSURE REVEALED BY BAUER

Portions of the San Bernardino National Forest will be closed to all types of public use or entry during the high fire hazard summer months as a fire prevention measure, according to Forest Supervisor Don Bauer.

The area closed consists of the inaccessible, steeper chaparral covered slopes of the primary mountain watersheds and represents about one-fourth of the area of the San Bernardino National Forest.

THESE FIRE prevention precautions are invoked by the Regional Forester under authority of Regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture, T-1, Section I, effective July 1, 1960.

Maps showing those portions of the San Bernardino National Forest that will remain open and available for public recreation enjoyment may be obtained at all U. S. Forest Service Ranger Stations.

THOSE AREAS that have been closed to public use or entry due to high fire hazard will be posted with "Closed Area" signs at all road and trail entrances and at intervals along the boundaries. These signs are placed to inform hikers, campers, fishermen, hunters and others of the closed area boundary and as a reminder that entry into the closed areas is a misdemeanor punishable by law. Persons who are in doubt as to the location of closed areas should inquire at the nearest Ranger Station.

All persons having business of an official or emergency nature which necessitates travel in a closed fire hazard area must first secure a written permit from the nearest Forest Ranger Station. Bonafide residents going to or from home, or persons traveling on public highways within the closed area need not secure a permit.

Some Catch

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (UPI) — Most fishermen only catch fish, but Edward Hoerscher of Montour Falls once had a more lucrative catch.

Fishing in Seneca Lake, Hoerscher noticed an object floating in the water. It turned out to be a wallet containing $114 which had been lost a few hours earlier by another man.

The nation's farm families received about eight billion dollars from off-the-farm activities in 1958, according to the National Industrial Conference Board.

AIRMAN CASEY NOW SERVING ON CARRIER WITH PACIFIC FLEET

Dick A. Casey, airman, USN, son of Mrs. Willma Athans of Palm Springs, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Oriskany operating with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The seven-month cruise, which began in late May, is scheduled to take the Oriskany and her crew to Japan, Hong Kong, Formosa and the Philippines.

She is scheduled to return to the states in December.

Dodgers Edge Yanks, Meet Phillies Tonight

RHUBARB-TIME DURING the 13-2 rout of the Desert Softball League All-Stars by the Huntington Park Chrysler Imperials came when plate umpire Charles Davis (back to camera) called Imperial batter Al Freitas—with bat, left—out for stepping out of the batter's box while hitting the ball." Imperial players called quickly for a measurement of the batter's box and discovered that the Polo Grounds diamond had been measured for six-foot batter's boxes instead of the regulation seven-foot boxes. Visiting manager Al Ackerman did not protest Davis' decision—possibly because his team ended a tight ball game with a huge uprising in the fourth inning—but did suggest that the local officials convert to the "regulation" boxes. (Desert Sun Photo)

53,492 Watch Game

PHILADELPHIA — (UPI) — It was just like the old Dodger glory days in Brooklyn—that quick trip into nostalgia.

Particularly so for "dem bums" Duke Snider and Gil Hodges.

The Dodgers, playing in New York for the first time in 2½ years, called on Hodges to perform one of his feats of old, and he did. He whacked a booming triple to centerfield in the seventh inning that gave Los Angeles a 4-3 exhibition victory over the New York Yankees in the house that Babe Ruth built.

THE LAST TIME the Dodgers played in Yankee Stadium, Oct. 8, 1956, Yankee Don Larsen pitched the first and only perfect game in World Series history to give New York a 2-0 win.

It was different, though, last night. Snider and Hodges got two hits apiece to lead the Dodgers to the victory which squared their exhibition series with Casey Stengel's American Leaguers.

THE LARGEST crowd of the year, 53,492 enthusiastic fans, welcomed the Dodgers back for the game that was played to help injured Dodger catcher Roy Campanella and a lot of underprivileged kids.

More than a few of the fans were the old faithful from Ebbets Field, gone now that the Dodgers play in Los Angeles. The Campanella game in Los Angeles last year drew a record crowd of 93,103.

TONIGHT, HOWEVER, it's back to reality for manager, Walt Alston's defending champions who find themselves mired in sixth place in the senior league, 10½ games off the pace set by Pittsburgh.

Against the Philadelphia Phillies, Alston named Stan Williams (6-1) to open the series. Opposing the lanky Dodger hurler will be young Dallas Green (0-1).

ROGER CRAIG, laid up with a broken collar bone since May 2, worked the first five innings against the Yankees. He allowed the Bronx Bombers three runs on five hits and fanned four. He didn't get the win—Sandy Koufax did—but Roger appeared ready to jump back into a starting role with Los Angeles.

However, everything wasn't perfect last night—the Dodgers proved they still hadn't worn off completely the "daffy" tag hung on them by Brooklyn fans, who when angered threatened to do what it finally took a housing project to do, tear down Ebbetts Field.

Hodges, trying to stretch his triple into a home run, was thrown out at the plate.

TOP GOLFERS IN THE Palm Springs JayCees play at O'Donnell Country Club Saturday and Sunday were Maurice (Smitty) Smith, left, who scored a 63 net on a 68 gross for 18 holes for first place trophy, and Charles Kasmer, right, who placed second with a 65 net on an 87 gross. Hank Mollner, chairman of the event, center, presented the awards during a post-tourney outing in Tamarisk Park. Wayne and Norma Hoffman shot 9 holes in 43 Sunday to top the Scotch foursome event. Booby prize awards—copies of Ben Hogan's "Power Golf," were awarded to Jack Oberle and John West, whose scores weren't released. (Desert Sun Photo)

Single Game Marks Start Of 'Round'

Telephone Team Meets Mazzula Stars Tonight

Second round play in the Desert Softball League opens up tonight with a single game scheduled at the Polo Grounds ballfield.

The California Water and Telephone Company team will meet the Mazzula All-Stars in the single game at 8 p.m.

A double header is scheduled for tomorrow night which will put the balance of the league's teams into action.

In tomorrow night's first game, the Desert Hot Springs team, loser of one game in first round play, will meet the Mexican Colony nine, undefeated in this year's competition. The Colony squad edged the Desert Hot Springs team by 6-5 in the initial game of the year.

No-Hitter for Seven Innings

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. — (UPI) — Dick Drott narrowly missed making history at Cooperstown Monday when he tossed a no-hitter for seven innings while leading the Chicago Cubs to a 5-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the 19th annual Hall of Fame exhibition game.

Drott, who hasn't won a game for the Cubs during the regular season, retired the first 19 men in order before he walked Ken Aspromonte on a 3 and 2 pitch in the seventh inning to spoil an otherwise perfect sting.

RELIEFER DROPS ORIOLES TO 2ND

By GARY KALE
United Press International

No one was more surprised than Jack Kralick when Manager Cookie Lavagetto of the Washington Senators named him to pitch against the Baltimore Orioles Monday night.

And no one was more surprised than the Orioles when the 25-year-old southpaw knocked them out of first place in the American League by pitching his way to a 5-2, 10-inning victory in his first major league start.

KRALICK HAD relieved in 15 previous games this season and turned in six fireman appearances last year for the Senators before getting the starting nod from Lavagetto.

A wild 10th inning, resulting in three unearned runs for Washington without a ball being hit out of the infield, dropped the Orioles into second place in the American League standings, three percentage points behind the idle New York Yankees.

HOYT WILHELM, who usually figures in any wild spree, was the victim of horrid support in a frame in which umpire Joe Paparella tossed out Baltimore Manager Paul Richards for arguing on a tipped foul by Bob Allison.

Allison, with the count 3 and 2, attempted to punch one of Wilhelm's pitches and it trickled foul. Richards claimed it should have been ruled a bunted foul third strike.

Cubs Continue Winning Ways

The Cubs continued their winning ways in the Palm Springs Minor League last night, dishing out a 13-0 defeat to the hapless Braves.

Jordon struck out seven Braves in hurling the Cub victory.

In the second game, the Tigers outscored the Giants by 22-9 to move into third place in the league.

Jim Bunker took credit for the win.

HOLLYWOOD PARK SETS 'BIG HORSES'

INGLEWOOD — The Inglewood Handicap winner Bagdad, the great filly Silver Spoon and such two-year old stars as King Kameha, Olden Times and Mr. America will be featured during an outstanding holiday weekend of racing at Hollywood Park.

Three major stakes will be run at Hollypark over the weekend, starting Friday with the $20,000 added Haggin Stakes for two-year-old colts and geldings at five furlongs.

WITH PREVIOUS stakes winners Pappa's All, Dance Lesson and Wire Us barred by the conditions, the nominees are topped by Fair Oaks stable's King Kameha, Rex Ellsworth's Olden Times and Verne Winchell, Jr's, Mr. America.

The Hollywood Park feature on Saturday will be the $35,000 added Vanity Handicap for three-year-old and up fillies and mares. At a mile and one-eighth this race annually determines the distaff championship of the meeting. Last year it went to Bug Brush, a stablemate of Silver Spoon, who was voted the best three-year-old filly of the season.

THE $50,000 ADDED American Handicap at a mile and one-eighth on Monday, July 4, will draw Bagdad, Sea Orbit, Fleet Nasrullah, Prize Host, Eddie Schmidt, Seaneen, Twentyone Guns and others to the starting line in the final major stepping stone leading up to the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup July 16.

Bagdad has drilled impressively since his three-quarter-length triumph over the tremendously improved Sea Orbit in the Inglewood Handicap, and is expected to be the pre-race favorite for the American, which last year drew a holiday crowd of 49,448.

Braves Win 8-1 As Miles Hurls One-Hit Game

The Hathaway Braves, solidly ensconced in first place in the Palm Springs Little League, dealt an 8-1 defeat to the Rotary Club nine last night as Hathaway hurler D Miles registered a one-hitter.

The Braves collected a total of 10 hits and — combined with five Rotary errors — scored an easy win.

In the second game of the doubleheader bill, the Junior Police moved into a second place tie with Palm Springs Water Company again, defeating the Lincoln-Mercury Comets by a 12-6 count.

Lewis threw the victory for the Junior Police, issuing only four hits to the Comet batters.
